

Mohamed Ali Youssef

Frontend Developer

I have 1 year of experience as a passionate front-end developer. I've worked both as a freelancer and on team projects, gaining valuable insights into collaborative development environments. Proficient in HTML, CSS, Bootstrap, JavaScript, and front-end frameworks like React, I am dedicated to creating exceptional web experiences.

I bring strong communication, adaptability, and attention to detail to my work. Thriving in collaboration, I contribute innovative ideas and am eager to apply my technical skills in dynamic, forward-thinking teams, always motivated to learn and grow.
